STRAIGHT FROM THE BIG GREEN EGG
THE CERAMIC CHARCOAL GRILL

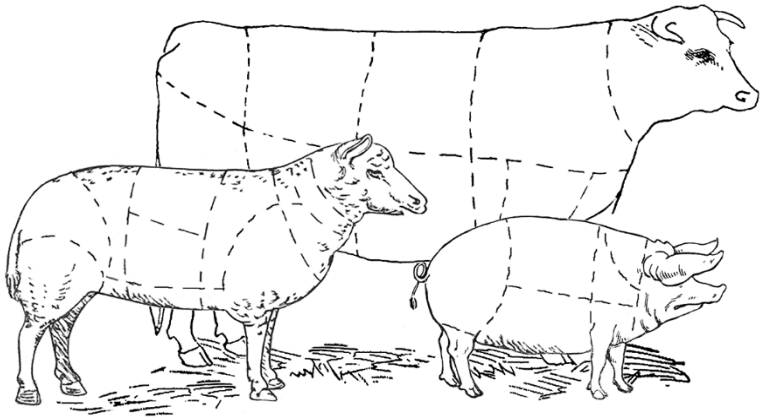

The idea behind the Big Green Egg is thousands of years old.
People in eastern Asia were already cooking in clay ovens fired with wood more than 3,000 years ago. They called those ovens "kamado" (oven or stove).
When combined with modern, innovative ceramic technology made by NASA, a perfect, modern outdoor cooking device was created: the Big Green Egg.

For Shane, the Big Green Egg has become an indispensable element of his signature style. There are two XXL Big Green Eggs fired up almost around the clock in the custom-built Asam Schlössl grill kitchen.

Shane's motto: Master the fire or it will master you.

HISTORY

In 1687, the electoral privy councillor Adrian von Kray built a country estate in Thalkirchen next to the Schadeneckmühle mill, which had existed since the 14th century and at the time was considered to be well outside Munich. In 1724, Cosmas Damian Asam bought the estate and converted it into an artists' residence as it appears today. He added a storey to the building and painted the new façade with frescoes as were typical in Munich around 1729. He had a geometric baroque palace garden laid out on the south side.

He paid for the upgrade with the commission he had received for his fresco work in Einsiedeln Abbey. He therefore named the property after the Swiss place of pilgrimage - Asamisch Maria Einsiedel Dall (Asamic Maria-Einsiedel Valley).

After that the Schlössl (or "little palace") changed owners several times. In 1838, an extension with an excursion restaurant was built on the east side. From 1923 to 1927 the facades were again frescoed. During the Second World War, the Asam Schlössl burned down, and its remains were secured in 1947 with an emergency roof. In 1957, the architect and preservationist Erwin Schleich acquired the property from the city of Munich.

In 1982 Karl Manninger reconstructed the frescoes based on vedute in the Asamic version. In 1992 Augustiner Bräu acquired the Asam Schlössl. The frescoes on the facades and in the ballroom were restored by the Augsburg painter Hermenegild Peiker. From 1993-2019, Birgit Netzle was the proprietor of the Asam Schlössl. Since mid-September 2020, Barbara and Shane McMahon and their experienced gastronomy team have joined the long line of illustrious hosts at this richly traditional inn.

The coat of arms in the logo shows the history of the Schlössl. Did you notice that the crown sits right on the gable? The diamond pattern stands for Bavaria. The ravens are the symbols of Einsiedeln Abbey. The shield is held by two lions. Just like at in the Feldherrnhalle at Munich's Odeonsplatz, one lion has its mouth open and the other closed. The lion with the open mouth looks in the direction of the King's Residenz, the other to the Theatinerkirche church. The reason for this is that in the olden days, one was allowed to complain about the government, but not about the church.
